

COOL CAPITAL

SMALL IS BIG

2016 PROGRAMME

| Date                | Event                                                   | Description                                                                                                                                               | Venue                                                         | Contact Person                        | Contact Details                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 19-SepMonday    | Eduplex High School Art Exhibition                      | Unveiling of the Cool Capital 2016 project and exhibition of learners' work                                                                               | Eduplex High School, 1193 Meara Street                        | Christine Webb                        | christine.webb@eduplex.co.za                                                                                         |
| 21-SepWednesday | Opening: Glass as Conveyor of Image                     | Group Exhibition by Diane Victor, Liesl Roos, Berco Wilsenach, Retief van Wyk & laan Bekker                                                               | Pretoria Art Museum, Schoeman Street & Wessel Street          | Retief van WykHannelie du Plessis | vanwykr1@tut.ac.za or 083 291 0917hanneliedp@tshwane.gov.za or 012 358 6748 |
|                     | Open Mic Conversations                                  | A networking and information sharing event for people and organisations interested in the rejuvenation of Pretoria's CBD.                                 | CityProperty Administration, 101 du Toit Street (cnr. Madiba) | Mareli Wassenaar                      | mareli@capitalcollective.co.za                                                                                     |
| 22-SepThursday  | Opening: Saadjies Exhibition                            | Cool Capital Flagship Sculpture Project featuring miniature works by 75 of Artists                                                                        | Anton van Wouw Museum 299 Clark Str, Brooklyn                 | Jana Kruger                           | studio@maaa.co.za                                                                                                               |
| 23-SepFriday    | Opening: Out of the Fire, Into the Light                | Glass Exhibition with various talks by the artists scheduled                                                                                              | Association of Arts Pretoria 173 Mackie Str, Nieuw Muckleneuk | Lothar BöttcherNandi Hilliard     | artspta@mweb.co.za                                                                                                             |
| 24-SepSaturday  | Market @ the Sheds                                      | Inner-City market. Artists are invited, as a special Cool Capital initiative, to create a temporary art intallation                                       | 012 Central, 381 Helen Joseph Street                          | Mareli Wassenaar                      | mareli@capitalcollective.co.za                                                                                     |
|                     | Project Launch: Wisest                                  | WISEST - Walk in Someone Else's Shoes Today - Music and Social Event. Entry Fee: Old Clothes & Shoes                                                      | Café Riche, Church Square                                     | Tanya MichelleKonrad Steyn        | tanya.michelle@me.comkonradsteyn2@gmail.com                                 |
|                     | Wisest Fun Run                                          | WISEST + Trail Adventures host a Fun Run in the Pretoria CBD. For those who would rather walk there is also an informative walking tour with Adriaan Louw | Pretoria CBD                                                  | Tanya MichelleKonrad Steyn        | tanya.michelle@me.comkonradsteyn2@gmail.com                                 |
|                     | Opening: Four School's Art Exhibition (Invitation Only) | Art Exhibition by Afrikaanse Hoër Seunskool, Afrikaanse Hoër Meisieskool, Pretoria High School for Girls and Pretoria Boys High                           | Afrikaanse Hoër Seunskool                                     | Philip van Emmenis                    | philip.emmenis@affies.co.za                                                                                           |
| 25-SepSunday    | Film Evening                                            | Visit the South African Pavilion in Venice - "Cool Capital Trek" documentary film, followed by students' short films                                      | Atterbury Theatre                                             | Jana Kruger                           | studio@maaa.co.za                                                                                                               |
|                     | Four School's Art Exhibition (Public Viewing)           | Art Exhibition by Afrikaanse Hoër Seunskool, Afrikaanse Hoër Meisieskool, Pretoria High School for Girls and Pretoria Boys High                           | Afrikaanse Hoër Seunskool                                     | Philip van Emmenis                    | philip.emmenis@affies.co.za                                                                                           |
| 26-SepMonday    | Film Evening                                            | Visit the South African Pavilion in Venice - "Cool Capital Trek" documentary film, followed by students' short films                                      | Atterbury Theatre                                             | Jana Kruger                           | studio@maaa.co.za                                                                                                               |
| 27-SepTuesday   | Hoërskool Garsfontein Kunsuitstalling                   | Art Exhibition by learners of Hoërskool Garsfontein                                                                                                       | Hoërskool Garsfontein                                         | Olga van der Merwe                    | olga@garsies.co.za                                                                                                             |

|        |           |                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                               |                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--------|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 28-Sep | Wednesday | Hoërskool Waterkloof Kuns Meander                                   | Walk through the Cool Capital Art Installation - collaboration between art learners and Gordon Froud                                                                                       | Hoërskool Waterkloof                                          | Bonnie Ras                                          | bonnie.ras@klofies.co.za                                                                                                                                                       |
| 02-Oct | Sunday    | Gallery Crawling                                                    | Visit Pretoria's art galleries - extended hours every first Sunday of the month                                                                                                            | Various Art Galleries                                         |                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 05-Oct | Wednesday | Molo Mollo Cinema Club                                              | Featuring alternative films and live music performances                                                                                                                                    | Bank Towers Building, 190 Thabo Sehume Street                 | Jeanne-Louise Lamont                                | jl@molomollo.co.za                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 06-Oct | Thursday  | Design Build Expo hosted by the Pretoria Institute for Architecture | Aimed at all within and interested in the Built Environment to create healthy networking opportunities within our built environment and to promote up-to-date technical know-how           | 012 Central, 381 Helen Joseph Street                          | Mauneen van Wyk                                     | management@pia.org.za                                                                                                                                                             |
| 07-Oct | Friday    | Design Build Expo hosted by the Pretoria Institute for Architecture | Aimed at all within and interested in the Built Environment to create healthy networking opportunities within our built environment and to promote up-to-date technical know-how           | 012 Central, 381 Helen Joseph Street                          | Mauneen van Wyk                                     | management@pia.org.za                                                                                                                                                             |
| 08-Oct | Saturday  | PAINT ME! A community paint project                                 | Come and paint 'Morphous', by sculptor Anton Smit                                                                                                                                          | Menlyn Maine Central Square                                   | Roelien Smit                                        | roe.smit@gmail.com                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 10-Oct | Monday    | The Pigeon Squad - Photography Exhibition                           | A photography exhibition organised by 3rd year Visual Arts students @TUKS celebrating Pretoria as seen through the eyes of its people                                                      | tbc                                                           | Rolene Byleveld                                     | rolenebyleveld@hotmail.co.uk                                                                                                                                               |
| 13-Oct | Thursday  | Every Other Day Pop-up exhibition                                   | The TUT Gallery is hosting a Fundraising event in order to help hard-working and goal-driven Art students in need of education bursaries - Donated artworks will be sold @ R100            | Prinschurch Building, 216 Sisulu St                           | Caitlin Greenberg                                   | GreenbergCJ@tut.ac.za                                                                                                                                                             |
| 14-Oct | Friday    | Opening: Desire Exhibition                                          | This group exhibition curated by Johan Conradie, features artists known for candidly challenging the ambiguity and paradox of desire.                                                      | Association of Arts Pretoria, 173 Mackie Street               | Johan ConradieNandi Hillard                     | johanconradieart@gmail.comartspta@mweb.co.za                                                                                     |
| 15-Oct | Saturday  | Blow your Sculpture: Picnic in the Gardens                          | Outdoor Blown Glass Exhibition & #mustfall arts campaign with live music by Jazz Cantina                                                                                                   | Botanical Gardens                                             | Lother BöttcherMariska MeyersFrikkie Snyman | blowyoursculpture@gmail.compinky.meyers@gmail.comfrikkiehsnyman@gmail.com |
| 16-Oct | Sunday    | Blow your Sculpture: Picnic in the Gardens                          | Outdoor Blown Glass Exhibition & #mustfall arts campaign with live music by Jazz Cantina                                                                                                   | Botanical Gardens                                             | Lother BöttcherMariska MeyersFrikkie Snyman | blowyoursculpture@gmail.compinky.meyers@gmail.comfrikkiehsnyman@gmail.com |
| 19-Oct | Wednesday | Boekstad vir Loxton                                                 | An installation by design collaboration WitopWit: Books are collected to donate to a primary school in Loxton, but before they go, a scale model of Pretoria will be built with the books. | Afrikaanse Hoër Meisieskool Pretoria, Bond Street, Clydesdale | Karlien Thomashoff                                  | karlien@thomashoffstudio.co.za                                                                                                                                           |

|            |           |                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                  |                               |                                                                                                                                        |
|------------|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 20-Oct     | Thursday  | Woord & Wingerd                                     | Screening of FilmVerse 2 followed by a discussion with animation artists.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Graffiti Books, MenlynMaine                                  | Sonja Janse van Rensburg      | sonja@graffitibooks.co.za                                                               |
| 21-Oct     | Friday    | Animation Bash                                      | A curated selection of 65 short animation clips, both stop frame and digital including work by well-known animation artists Louis Minnaar and Diek Grobler, and Sasol New Signatures Runner-Up, Paul Andries Marais.Bring a basket, blankets and pillows. Food stalls available.Time: 19h00 - 21h00. Entrance R30 @ the gate. | Association of Arts Pretoria173 Mackie Str, Nieuw Muckleneuk | Nandi Hilliard                | artspta@mweb.co.za                                                                             |
| 22-Oct     | Saturday  | City Clean Up @ Pop-Up clothes store                | Let's clean up Church Square! Clothes collected during the WISEST project launch will be donated to the homeless of the inner-city.                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Church Square                                                    | Tanya Michelle Konrad Steyn   | tanya.michelle@me.comkonradsteyn2@gmail.com |
|            |           | TUT Live-Figure Modelling                           | Join TUT Sculpture for relief modelling in public, from a live-model. Anybody who wants to put their hands in clay may join; it is free. Clay slabs and the basic modelling tools are provided. 10:00 – 14:00 at Archneer                                                                                                             | Archneer (1153 Park street, Hatfield, Pretoria)                  | Renier le Roux                | LeRouxR@tut.ac.za                                                                               |
| 23-Oct     | Sunday    | Tour of the A Re Yeng station artworks              | Learn more about the additions to Pretoria's public art at the A Re Yeng stations and explore the gems in the neighbourhoods alongside the Trunk Route.                                                                                                                                                                               | A Re Yeng Trunk Route - Meet at Hatfield Station                 | Adriaan Louw                  | louwaa@gmail.com                                                                                 |
| 26-Oct     | Wednesday | Molo Mollo Cinema Club                              | Featuring alternative films and live music performances                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Bank Towers Building, 190 Thabo Sehume Street                    | Jeanne-Louise Lamont          | jl@molomollo.co.za                                                                             |
| 28-Oct     | Friday    | PPC Bench installation                              | Pretoria's 12 new designer benches will be delivered to their respective locations in Pretoria                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Various Locations in Pretoria - Delivery schedule to follow      | Jana Kruger                   | studio@maaa.co.za                                                                               |
| 29-Oct     | Saturday  | Market @ the Sheds                                  | Popular Inner-City Market                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 012 Central, 381 Helen Joseph Street                             | Mareli Wassenaar              | mareli@capitalcollective.co.za                                                     |
|            |           | Foundry Day                                         | A self-drive tour showcasing 3 of the unique bronze casting foundries in Pretoria                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | DSW foundryGuy du Toit FoundryTUT Foundry            | Elani Willemse                | elani@angustaylor.co.za                                                                   |
|            |           | Magic for the sake of Magic - Shadow Puppet Theater | A shadow puppetry show and magic themed evening.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Hatfield - tbc                                                   | Edith Fumarola                | edithfum@gmail.com                                                                             |
| 30/10/2016 | Sunday    | Cool Capital Picnic                                 | Celebrate Cool Capital 2016 with participating artists and live music. Bring a small object of significance along for a collaborative installation.                                                                                                                                                                                   | Association of Arts Pretoria173 Mackie Str, Nieuw Muckleneuk | Nandi HilliardJana Kruger | artspta@mweb.co.zastudio@maaa.co.za                 |